Will have, during Exposition Week, handsome novelties in New Fall Goods in all departments. They invite visitors to the city to call and inspect for themselves the superb bargains they are now offering in Black Silks, Colored Silks, Brocade Silks, Satin de Lyons, Satin and Trimming Silks, Velvets, Black Cashmeres, Colored Cashmeres, Novelties in Suitings, Trimmings, Fringes, Laces, &c. Elegant New Novelties in Ladies' Furnishing Goods, in Neck-wear, Fichus, Ties, Scarfs, Ribbons, Ruchees, Gloves, &c., now on the way, and to be opened for Exposition Week. A new line of Low-priced Cloaks and Dolmans already opened. Always on hand an immense stock of House Furnishing Goods. We court a comparison of our prices with other houses, as we know that no house, East or West, is offering greater inducements in low prices, this Fall, than ours. Not in one line, but in all lines, we make prices to attract the favorable attention of every one requiring the goods. A handsome percentage may be saved the readers of "THE CHIEF," by coming to St. Joseph to do their trading, and to those who do, we extend a cordial invitation to call upon us. We can show them an elegant line of goods to select from, and will let them be the judges as to whether our prices are right or not.

CHAMBERS & MARNEY,
FELIX STREET, BETWEEN 5th and 6th, ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI.

Thursday was the day set for our Republican rally. The day was rainy, and a great many thought we would have to postpone the holding of the pole; but by two o'clock the rain ceased, and the colored troops went to work digging a hole for the pole, and soon had it down to the depth of seven feet, when the work began in good earnest, and we saw that there were enough Republicans here with all the bad weather, to hold a half-dozen poles. Mr. Sam. Lehmann, with his sons, was present, and cheered the boys in their work. They played very well on their own ground, and considering the fact that they have for practice. The speakers having arrived, they were introduced to the crowd by the Hon. J. W. Cook, Vice-President of the Doniphan County Republican Club, who made a few remarks, and then left the stand for the Hon. T. W. Bailey, and when he shot off the Republican gun, there were several Democrats ever starting for home in such a hurry that a person might have thought they had taken something; but the trouble was, they were taking the wrong way for them, being too much taken with the sight of the pole, and not with the sight of the pole, and would do so in Kansas, if they had the power. In fact, he made us a very good speech. Other speakers were present, and the rally was a good one. The Republicans here are not a bad lot for the party, but one thing, and that is, there is a little trouble over the removal of the Post Office from St. Joseph to Kansas City, and it is a matter where it belongs, and that is where the majority of the people want it.

Mr. Harding had a runaway, Saturday. A spin of hired mules took French to the south, and the wagon somewhat smashed.

Miss Mitchell, who has been visiting friends here, will leave for St. Joseph, Saturday, and will be back in time to see the Republican rally.

J. W. Cook has left for Topeka, to help him out next Governor. Hope he will be able to do it.

Our fellow-townsmen, John Montgomery, leaves on the 1st, going to St. Joe. John has lived a long while with us, but he is now compelled to go away for a while, and he is now in the city.

Robert Plickinger was down last Friday, on business. He is now in the city, and is now in the city.

Miss Plickinger came down from attending the Institute, Friday night. As it was very stormy, she did not come down, and she is now in the city.

All men who claim to be Masons are not Masons, and such characters that go about the country under such pretences, are friends and deceivers.

A good deal of work coming into market. Butter scarce, and demanding a good price.

Peaches were selling out of wagon on the street, at thirty cents per bushel. The whole country is full of them.

Beacon marks are higher here than in Athens.

How is that?

The efficacy of electricity can be found in Boyd's battery at Hoke party at Weyer's, Thursday night.

Charley Kuchel came in this week with a new advertisement. Charley means business.

Harry Farnce, who has been visiting friends here, will leave for St. Joseph, Saturday, and will be back in time to see the Republican rally.
